Weather Is Ideal

It was an ideal day for the game A coppery sun glowed in a cloudless sky and there was a mid-summer warmth in the October air.

"If this weather holds, we shall see some pitching." said Bob Shawkey, the Yank hurler, "for you can't beat old sun for oiling up soup bones. Crowd Not Excited

New York took its local series calmly. A New York team was bound rush for the unreserved sections in the upper grandstands and bleachers. There was plenty of room for the early comers and there were seats to spare at noon. The reserved sections in the lower grandstands, with every seat sold, did not fill up until game time. Of course the usual brass band was on hand to keep the early comers in good humor. Nick Altrock and Al Schlacht did their clowning acts hefore the game.
